Frequently Asked Questions

1. Yarrie Lake Flora and Fauna Reserve Trust is managed by volunteers appointed by the NSW Government. Up to 7 Trustees may be appointed. The trustees are Fred Browning, Christine Cain, Melissa Cain, Wayne Steele, Janelle Nehrkorn, Russell Booby and Bernie Smith.
 2. The Trust is assisted in a voluntary capacity by persons who are willing to act as Voluntary Caretaker. The Voluntary Caretaker resides at Yarrie Lake and collects camping fees and assists to maintain the area.
 3. The Trust's only income is the income received from annual boat permits and from camping fees. The Trust receives no annual funding from Narrabri Shire Council or from any State or Federal Government.
 4. The boat fees and camping fees are used to pay all the costs associated with Yarrie Lake, costs such as electricity for camp sites, amenities blocks and pumping water, as well as fuel and repairs for the tractor/slasher and the mower and any other equipment owned by the Trust, as well as all other costs.
 5. The Trust has no employees and pays no wages – all work done at Yarrie Lake is done on a voluntary basis (other than when a contractor is engaged to do a specific job).
 6. From time to time the Trust receives grants to be spent on upgrading Yarrie Lake and the surrounds – however these grants are few and far between.
 7. The Trust conducts working bees on the first Sunday of each month and encourages boat owners and lake users to give a couple of hours to help keep the lake area tidy and maintained.
 8. Yarrie Lake and its surrounds are a public area and all applicable NSW and Commonwealth laws apply – the Police have full authority at Yarrie Lake.
 9. Camping fees and annual boat permit fees are set annually by the Trust and typically the Trust returns a small profit at years' end – providing no major repairs or breakdowns occur. Any accumulated profits are returned to the area by way of upgraded facilities.
